Scoring Freely Routines

Judges will give each of the following criteria a score between 0 and 10 with the average of the scores being the final result for that round, expressed as a number up to one decimal point, taking into account the following guidelines:

A) Technical Aspects

- Difficulty: The degree of difficulty of all moves and transitions.
- Movement Skills: Ability to move vertical, horizontal and multiple rotations in a flat, back down, sideways, head up, head down or any other possible orientation.
- Precision, Control: Ability of the performers to demonstrate body control skill or series of skills.
- Team Work: The ability to combine technical skills of the performers to stay within close proximity of each other throughout the routine and/or create complex effects of movements.

Examples for Technical:

- The performers maintain proper proximity throughout the moves.
- All flying surfaces are used (i.e. flat, back-down, head-up, head-down, sideways).
- A constant interaction and teamwork displayed.
- The routine shows a wide variety of skills.

Presentation

- Visual Excitement: Routine should hold the viewers' attention throughout the performance and all maneuvers are entertaining without being unnecessary.
- Originality: Creative choreography in variety.
- Team Work: Routines that demonstrate combined skills of both team members

Examples for Presentation:

- The routine has a definite beginning, good use of working time and a definitive ending
- The routine has a nice flow. There is a high level of creativity in the way of new moves, original choreography and new twists on old moves.
- The routine is enjoyable and aesthetically pleasing to watch.
